A.2 Spence Engineering sign

Tom Forster, Spence engineering, explained the plans for a new sign which will be free standing. The structure is 5 feet by 8 feet and will not be lit.

Stan Plato asked what the relationship is to Circor.

Tom Forester said that they are partnered with Circor and they use the name to market in Europe as the name is widely recognized there.

Kevin Dowd said that the village code says that you cannot advertise a product line on an identification sign.

Stan Plato asked if the product lines are trademarked.

Tom Forster said that they are trademarked and that they would like to advertise them on the sign.

Kevin Dowd explained that you're not allowed to advertise on your identification sign. He suggested that he find out for sure if the product lines are trademarked and then bring it to the Zoning Board to ask for a variance to include them on the sign.

Jay Wilkins made a motion to approve the sign as submitted excluding the two bottom lines.
