Architectural Review – 42B Orchard Street

Mayor Maher advised the board that he spoke to the building inspector who told him that the board could call a special meeting to approve the colors of the building at 42 Orchard Street.

Donna Hall, New York School of Music explained to the board that she would like approval of the colors she would like to paint her building at 42 Orchard Street. The main color will be Hampshire Taupe and the trim will be Edgewood Clift. She also advised them that because of the new ruling for painting exteriors, which goes into effect April 22nd, the cost of painting her building would go up.

Mayor Maher moved to approve Hampshire Taupe for the trim and Edgewood Clift for the trim of 42 Orchard Street. Seconded by Trustee Norman. All ayes.

Adjournment

Mayor Maher moved to adjourn. Seconded by Trustee Leonard. All ayes.
Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy Mitchell
Village Clerk
